

July 7.

I find if I mail this on board it will be sent - by post boat we meet going to U.S. so will not wait to mail in England - Dad is much better & getting more interested. sleep afternoons, & all night. last night a picture was given real good. Today there is Ginn's tournament. The weather was cloudy yesterday & today.
Wind blew some yesterday but not so much today. One can sleep & sleep & I can almost sleep try to write. I met Mrs. Davy from Seattle yesterday. & today lady from Vancouver B.C. I send you see Myrtle & give her my message.
I hope all are well. I dream of you all and love Mother
