CONGRATULATIONS

To keep fresh the names and faces of classmates and teachers—for delightful reminiscences of another day.

To record a few of the year's frivolous incidents, and some of its serious ones, too—all for smiles in the future.

To congratulate you on the year's splendid achievement—the year when youth blossoms into young manhood and young womanhood, with life's obligations, opportunities—yes, and pitfalls—just ahead; the year of your graduation.

To express the earnest hope that the not distant future will see the happy fruition of all your hopes and plans; that the splendid education you worked so long and so hard to get, will yield you rich dividends, in health, happiness and success.

All this—and more—is the purpose of this friendly little brochure, which you will please accept with the compliments of

F. Leland Watkins, A. M.

Don't take ~~some~~ advice!
Do not let anything stand in ~~your~~ way of completing your education. I know you will make use of it.

Education makes a people easy to lead, but hard to drive;
easy to govern, but impossible to enslave
